

August 16-17, 2016

Dayton Convention Center Dayton, Ohio

UAS Aviation: A Partnership for the Future

James D. Daniels

Doug joined the Ohio Peace Officer Training Academy (OPOTA) staff in 2000 as a full time instructor.

Prior to joining the OPOTA staff, Doug served 23 years with the Greenfield Police Department where he attained the rank of Sergeant.

His duties included patrol, investigations, juvenile and school truancy, shift supervisor, bike patrol supervisor/officer and in-service instructor.

His teaching responsibilities include firearms, officer survival, chemical agents, and patrol tactics.

He is a multi-certified Ohio Peace Officer Training Commission (OPOTC) instructor and basic commander in Basic Peace Officer Training.

He has taught in numerous academies in Ohio and several court officer courses outside of the state.

Doug served on a Bailiff Curriculum Committee and a Use of Force Committee and is recognized as a subject matter expert by the Ohio Peace Officer Training Commission in several law enforcement disciplines.

Doug is a member in good standing with the International Association of Law Enforcement Firearms Instructors (IALEFI), the International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers Association (ILEETA), and the National Law Enforcement Firearms Instructors Association (NLEFIA).

He has taught at four IALEFI Annual Training Conferences and one IALEFI Regional Conference. Daniels is also a member of Airborne Law Enforcement Association (ALEA), Association for Unmanned Vehicle Systems International (AUVSI), Unmanned Aerial Vehicle Systems Association (UAVSA) and the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association (AOPA).

Doug is presently conducting research for Law Enforcement in the use of Unmanned Aircraft Systems (UAS)/Drones.

Doug serves as a Special Deputy with the Madison County Sheriff's Office.